

Nkechi Ogboh, PharmD, MPH, CPH
Dominion International Center and
Texas Children's Hospital

Nkechi Ogboh holds a leadership position at Dominion International Center Spring Church located in Spring Texas. With over 15 years professional experience, she currently works as a pharmacist at Texas Children's Hospital located in Woodlands Texas. Dr. Ogboh is also a Certified Public health professional, holding an MPH degree with an emphasis in Public Health Leadership.

Dr. Ogboh has a passion to help create an awareness that fosters health eating lifestyles in order to minimize if not eliminate the risk of chronic disease conditions such as Diabetes, Hypertension, Obesity, Hyperlipidemia to name a few owing to her first hand knowledge or rising health care costs. Hand in hand is another passion of hers to help individuals and families attain financial literacy so they can live fulfilling lives, living out their passions to the best of their abilities. That being said, Dr Ogboh has led live and online sessions teaching on how to attain healthy eating habits, talks on debt free education, as well as co-led financial literacy classes during church-based meetings.
